

Vicki Liang

梁惠君

Profile –

Based in Sydney Australia and Hong Kong, Vicki Liang is a graphic designer and photographer.

Born in Macau, raised between China and Australia, Vicki completed her High School Certificate at St Andrews. She went on to attain a scholarship to study Integrated and Graphic Design at Parsons The New School in New York.

Currently in her last year of tertiary education, Vicki assists and works on an array of projects, ranging from magazine design to campaign shoots.

Education –

Parsons The New School
Bachelor of Fine Arts, Integrated Design
2018 – 2021

St Andrews Cathedral School, Sydney
High School
2016 – 2017

Barker College, Sydney
High School
2015 – 2016

Contact –

vickyliang@gmail.com
vickiliang.com

Experience –

Designer and Editorial Assistant
INPRINT Magazine
2020 – 2021

Working under the art and creative director to assist with editorial designs and creating content assets for print and digital platforms.

Branding
Our Pilates Studio
2020

Developed a fun and dynamic visual identity for Our Pilates Studio that speaks to its inclusivity and the focus on movements.

Campaign Photographer
COMMAS
2020

Created campaign still assets for COMMAS A/W 21, capturing the warmth and nostalgic sensation for the season.

Event Photographer
The Face Apartment
2019

Videographer
Baba C. Rivera
The Face x Mulberry
2019

Fashion Assistant
i-D Australia
2018

Assisted fashion editor of i-D Australia Charlotte Agnew, organizing fashion pieces and managing the communication between teams on set.